

Science and Democracy Network
Annual Meeting Program
June 29 – July 1, 2008
Harvard University

Sunday, June 29

2 Welcome

2:15 Introductions

3 Session 1: Models and Meanings (Chair: Rob Hagendijk)

- Stève Bernardin (Université de Paris I — Panthéon Sorbonne)
Pure Science in a Bureaucracy: Limits of a Necessary Fiction
- Ben Hurlbut (Harvard University)
Confusing Deliberation: What “Cloning” Means for Democracy
- Angela Pereira (European Commission, Joint Research Centre)
“Science and the Movies”: Arts as Interfaces between Science and Society

5 SDN Resources: Progress and Prospects (Chair: Sheila Jasanoff)

- Cristina Grasseni (Fondazione Bassetti)
- Alex Wellerstein (Harvard University)
Website Updates
- Hideyuki Hirakawa (Osaka University)
SDN and Japan 4S
- SDN's "common pool resources"

6 Adjourn for the day

7 Supper Reception (Sheila's home)

Monday, June 30

9 Session 2: Making and Managing Novelty (Chair: David Winickoff)

- Ulrike Felt and Maximilian Fochler (University of Vienna)
Civic Imaginations of Democracy and Innovation: How Citizens and Scientists Negotiate Innovation Governance in the Life Sciences
- Stephen Hilgartner (Cornell University)
Intellectual Property and the Politics of Emerging Technology: Inventors, Citizens, and Powers to Shape the Future
- Brice Laurent (Ecole des Mines de Paris)
New Forms of Science/Society Relationships in the French Industrial Risk Policy: Innovations and Ambiguities
- Cristina Grasseni (Fondazione Bassetti)
Comments

11 Coffee Break

11:30 Book Session (Chair: Daniel Barben)

- Angela Pereira (European Commission, Joint Research Centre)
Science for Policy: New Challenges, New Opportunities (edited with Silvio Funtowicz)
- Tim Forsyth (London School of Economics and Political Science)
Forest Guardians, Forest Destroyers: The Politics of Environmental Knowledge in Northern Thailand (with Andrew Walker)

12:15 Lunch

2 Session 3: S&TS and the Problem of Democratization (Chair: Shobita Parthasaraty)

- Rebecca Ellis (Lancaster University)
Taxonomy, Biodiversity and their Publics in 21st Century DNA Barcoding
- Jenny Reardon (University of California, Santa Cruz)
On Giving a Genomic Account
- Andrew Mathews (University of California, Santa Cruz)
Opaque Transparencies in Mexican Forests: Official Knowledge and Local Concealment

4 Coffee Break

4:30 Session 4: Testing Co-Production — Case Studies (Chair: Regula Valérie Burri)

- Bruce Evan Goldstein (Virginia Polytechnic Institute)
The U.S. Fire Learning Network: Coproducing Identity, Ways of Knowing, and Social Order Through Narrative
- Arisa Ema and Yuko Fujigaki (University of Tokyo)
How Information and Communication Technologies Affect “Safety” and “Privacy”: A Case study of RFID Surveillance System to Japanese School Children
- Tiago Mata (Foundation for Science and Technology)
An Uncertain Dollar: The Wall Street Journal, the New York Times and the Monetary Crisis of 1971 to 1973

6:30 Adjourn for the day

Tuesday, July 1

9 Session 5: Life and Its Values

- Shobita Parthasarathy (University of Michigan, Ann Arbor)
Making Democracy at the Patent Office: The Science and Politics of Patents on Living Organisms
- Kris Saha and David E. Winickoff (University of California, Berkeley)
Opening Life Science Research and Development: Integrative management of Data, IP and Ethics in Stem Cells
- Les Levidow (Open University)
GM Food on Trial: Testing European Democracy
- Annemiek Nelis (Centre for Society and Genomics)
Doing DNA-Dialogue

11:15 Coffee Break

11:45 SDN Resources (Reports) and Working Lunch

1:30 Session 6: Science and Politics Beyond the Nation State (Chair: Sang-Hyun Kim)

- Silke Beck (Helmholtz Centre for Environmental Research - UFZ)

From Disgust and Trust: Explaining the Changing Concepts of Public Acceptance in Wastewater Reuse Solutions

- Christophe Bonneuil (Centre Koyré d'Histoire des Sciences et des Techniques)
The Fabric of Scientific Advice at the WTO: Authority, Selection and Boundary Making in the Agbiotech Dispute
- Rob Hagendijk (Universiteit van Amsterdam)
Science, Technology and Inequality in a Globalizing World

3:30 Coffee Break

4 Future Meetings and Other Business

4:30 Adjourn